Date	10/4/1438
workshop	1	Target group	Lower grades Teachers &amp; Academic Supervisors
Place	Radhwa International School		Subject Teachable moment
General objective	Intentional Teaching: Enjoying Teachable Moments
Specific Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Identify an Intentional Teacher.</li> <li>2. What is teachable moment?</li> <li>3. How to Create a Teachable Moment.</li> <li>4. Strategies for Motivating Students in Mathematics.</li> </ol>
Recommendations	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Intentional teachers use their knowledge, judgment and experience to organize meaningful learning experiences for students. And, when unexpected situations arise, they recognize them as teaching opportunities.</li> <li>2. An intentional teacher cares about her students' growth, not just academically but socially, and uses behavioral issues as another means of teaching a valued lesson.</li> <li>3. An intentional teacher is involved in educational change and strives to make a difference daily in the lives of her students.</li> <li>4. Teachers of mathematics must understand the basic motives already present in their learners. The teacher can then play on these motivations to maximize engagement and enhance the effectiveness of the teaching process.</li> <li>5. Teachers can establish the purpose for the reading, review vocabulary, activate background knowledge, and encourage children to predict what the story will be about.</li> <li>6. During reading, teachers must direct children's attention to difficult or subtle dimensions of the text, point out difficult words and ideas, and ask children to identify problems and solutions.</li> </ol>
