1

One day my dog Bingo ran away.
I went to the park to see if I could find him.

2

When I got to the park I accidentally stepped in a pile of bumblebees.
The bees swarmed all around me.

3

I wanted to get away from the bees
so I jumped in a pond of water.

4

I still needed to find Bingo, so I ran to the top of a tall hill.

5

When I got to the top of the hill
I saw two doors with two doorknobs.

I knocked on the doors, but nobody was there.

6

I ran down one side of the hill.

7

Then I ran down the other side of the hill.

Has anybody seen my dog Bingo?

The important lessons of the story and the importance of having dog in our lives:

- ✚ Children can be taught valuable traits and life skills through positive interaction with the family pet and by taking responsibility for feeding, walking, training and grooming.
- ✚ Children can learn the value of treating all living things with respect and dignity when they have the opportunity to care for and love a family dog.
- ✚ No matter what, our dogs give us love (unconditional love) for whatever good they see in us.
- ✚ We are so privileged to have the loyalty or faithfulness from our dogs that few people can give us unconditionally.
- ✚ Dogs provide companionship and company. They can be a comfort to people who crave unconditional interaction with another living being.
- ✚ Dogs provide a sense of security for human companions.
