Clyde the Cat

Clyde was a little orange cat. He was the pet of a little girl named Clarice.

Clyde was a very playful cat. He liked playing with Clarice. He also liked to play with yarn and pillow.

One day, it was Clarice's birthday. Clyde was very happy because it was the first time he saw a birthday party. He enjoyed the delicious foods, the colorful balloons, and the birthday cap that Clarice put on his head. He liked all of these, but there's one more thing that he wanted to have – the candles in the birthday cake.

Mother cat knew what Clyde was up to. She told Clyde not to go near the lighted candles. But Clyde did not listen to mother cat. He went to mother cat. He went near the cake. He touched the lighted candle with one paw. "Meow!" cried Clyde. He burned his paw.

Clyde jump He tried to run away from the burning candle but his paw really painful.

"Plop! Splash!" Clyde landed into the cake. Clyde was very scared. He cried for help. Clarice did not know what to do. She called her Mom and Dad. Dad covered Clyde's paw with a wet handkerchief. Then he placed Clyde near Mother Cat.

Mother cat cleaned Clyde with her tongue. Clyde was ashamed and he felt sorry too. He kissed mother cat to tell her how sorry he was. He told mother cat that he will always listen to her.
